Tours in Athens for family and friends (optional)

Athens Sightseeing

Half Day Private tour to Acropolis with visit to Acropolis Museum & the Archaeological site. Approx. departure time 09.00

This tour will give you the opportunity to observe the striking contrasts that make Athens such a fascinating city.

Our expert guides will take you to see the Panathenaic Stadium where the first Olympic Games of modern times were held in 1896 (short stop).

Continue and pass by the Prime Minister's residence (ex Royal Palace) guarded by the Euzones in their colorful uniform, the Temple of Olympian Zeus, the Hadrian's Arch, the Parliament and the memorial to the Unknown Soldier, the Academy, the University, the National Library, the Constitution Square (Syntagma).

On the Acropolis visit the Architectural Masterpieces of the Golden Age of Athens: The Propylaea, the Temple of Athena Nike, the Erechtheion and finally "the harmony between material and spirit", the monument that "puts order in the mind", the Parthenon.

Continue and visit the place where at last the statues found their home and admire the wonders of the classical era: The new Acropolis museum.

Half Day Sounio – Poseidon Temple

In the afternoon 14.00approx. dep. Time

We will drive along the coastal road, passing the wonderful beaches of Glyfada, Vouliagmeni & Varkiza to the most Southern point of Attica, Cape Sounion, where the white marble pillars of the Temple of Poseidon stand.

It is a promontory located 69 kilometres (43 mi) south-southeast of Athens, at the southernmost tip of the Attica peninsula in Greece.

Cape Sounion is noted as the site of ruins of an ancient Greek temple of Poseidon, the god of the sea in classical mythology. The remains are perched on the headland, surrounded on three sides by the sea. The ruins bear the deeply engraved name of English Romantic poet Lord Byron (1788–1823).

The site is a popular day-excursion for tourists from Athens, with the sunset over the Aegean Sea, as viewed from the ruins, a sought-after sight.

On the way, you have a splendid view of the Saronic Gulf and the little islands offshore.

After visiting the Temple of Poseidon, you have time to walk at leisure on the rocky promontory of Sounion.

Rhodes Half day city tour & Medieval Castle

Description

In this tour we will not miss to visit the three windmills near to St Nicolas Fort, the New Market, the Public Administration buildings, the entrance of the Mandraki harbour with some very impressive monumental buildings built by the Italians and of course the two deer - where it is believed that the Colossus once stood - and the underwater Aquarium.

Continuing on to Monte Smith, you can enjoy exceptional picturesque views of the city and the seashore, visit the ruins of the Temple of Apollo, the impressive open-air ancient Stadium and the Amphitheatre. The tour arrives at one of the many gates of the famous medieval city of Rhodes, or better known as the Old Town, characterized by UNESCO as a monument of world cultural heritage. It offers a unique experience to visitors with its ability to blend the past and present day. Walk the paved alleyways, next to gigantic walls, under gateways and colonnades, through squares with fountains and obscure courtyards, through the street of the Knights of St. John and the Archaeological museum to the impressive Palace of the Grand Master. At the same time, you will be amazed by the variety of small shops selling everything from handmade jewellery, fine quality leather, handcrafted ceramics and carpets, to wooden handicrafts, and casual clothing.

Half day tour to Lindos

Description

Experience a trip along the east coast of Rhodes to the picturesque little town of Lindos. Visit the Acropolis, wander the small streets in the white town and visit a traditional ceramics studio.

Discover the idyllic town of Lindos, climb to the Acropolis and enjoy a breathtaking view

Experience a piece of Greek history, admire the old yet well-preserved halls, and visit the Temple of Athena Lindia

See the so-called white town, wander the narrow streets with their little shops and visit a ceramics studio

Full description

Discover the little town of Lindos, a picturesque location on the rocks with its own Acropolis. Scale the rocks over half of the so-called "white city" by foot or take a donkey ride.

Go through the city gate and the watchmen's hall and enjoy the incredible view over the sea and the island. Head over the steps to the large portico and the Temple of Athena Lindia. Decide for yourself whether you would like to visit the Acropolis.
